

Four Churches and a Windmill, Revisited!

Leader: Alison

Back by popular demand, I'm repeating my Sunday afternoon tea walks! Some of you have told me how you appreciate the late start on a Sunday. Others like the leisurely rambles through our beautiful Essex countryside. Me, I'M IN IT FOR THE CAKES! It's great to feel virtuous as you queue for your third helping of Chocolate Fudge cake knowing you've just paid for another tile for the Church roof, thus doing your bit towards preserving our heritage for future generations, and what a delicious way to do it!

The dates are as follows:

7th June - Blackmore

28th June - Aythorpe Roding Windmill

19th July - Stanford Rivers

23rd August - Upshire

6th September - High Beach

All the Cake Ladies were very pleased to see us last year and are looking forward to our return visits. They would appreciate it if you could call my mobile by 9 pm the Saturday before the walk so they get an idea of numbers, especially Stanford Rivers who are making some savoury rolls specially for us!

Parking at Aythorpe Roding Village Hall is limited, so please car share if you can.

See you there. Last one in buys the teas!
