

Four (Different) Churches and a Windmill

Leader: Alison

For this Summer I have found four new Church Tea Walks for your delectation. As usual, all the walks will begin at 12:30, so you can enjoy your lie-in.

I am kicking off the proceedings on 9th May at St. Peter and St. Paul Church, Stondon Massey. When I visited they were doing tea and biscuits but they've promised us CAKES, so let's show our appreciation for their special effort with a good attendance. I can promise you a walk with beautiful views.

The second walk takes us to All Saints Church, Doddinghurst on 6th June where Lorraine Jeaps and her team are preparing their afternoon tea and cakes especially for us - so again, a good attendance would be greatly appreciated. Tea will be taken in the ancient Priest House which they are restoring.

My third walk on 27th June is a revisit to Aythorpe Roding Windmill. The ladies provide an excellent tea in the Village Hall, and if there are any of you who have not yet climbed the tallest post-mill in Essex, now is your chance!

Walk number four is from All Saints Church, Nazeing on 15th August. I can promise you some spectacular views as we walk across the wartime "dummy airfield" by Lodge Farm.

Finally, we visit All Saints at Epping Upland, on 12th September, again with lovely views.

Please try to let me know by Friday evening if you would like to come.
You wouldn't want the caterers to run out of cakes, would you?
