

Soho Saunter
Sunday, 1st August
Leader: Pat

This is a walk of only two and three-quarter miles but packed with so much information that it will take us quite some time, so it's no good for anybody in a hurry to do some shopping in Oxford Street. The route will meander down streets I have not covered in any of my previous London rambles. We will start close to Oxford Street, and I intend to stop at Tottenham Court Road station, probably near mid-afternoon. You will hear of characters from Marx to Casanova, Canaletto to Mozart, and many more. Rock'n'Roll memories will be revived and lots of lovely 18th century houses will be seen.

Lunch will be taken in the grounds of a church so bring your own food. See the printed programme entry for exact place of meeting etc. There will be a limit of 20 places on this walk so please telephone me, preferably after 6.30pm, to make a booking.
